Public Comments Policy:

As a Brown Act Public Body, the Porterville College Academic Senate meetings are open to the public. The public may, however, only comment under specific circumstances as described below:

- Members of the public may only speak during the public comments section of the meeting
- Individuals may speak for no more than 3 minutes each; no more than 15 minutes of a regular meeting will be devoted to public comments; at the discretion of a majority of the Senate, these times may be extended
- Members of the public may address the Academic Senate on any matter within the subject matter jurisdiction of the Academic Senate
- Each person who addresses the Senate must first be recognized by the Academic Senate President, or designee, before speaking
- Public comments should be addressed to the Senate as a whole and not to individual members
- Members of the Senate are not obligated to comment on, or respond to, or address comments by the public
- Individuals disruptive to the proceedings of the Senate will be removed from the meeting
- Individuals who are not members of the Senate, but who are attending by invitation to address the Senate regarding specific agenda items, are not bound by these limitations; such individuals will be identified at the start of the meeting by the Academic Senate President, or designee
